Guest Artist Exhibition Information

The Prince Street Gallery is a cooperative gallery, well respected in the New York art community for the past 38 years. Each season the gallery sets aside three exhibition slots for out of town artists to exhibit in New York. These shows can consist of an individual or group of artists selected by the gallery. The group must submit material together for review, as the gallery does not pair individuals for exhibition.

The one available date for the upcoming 2008-2009 season is July 28- August 15th, 2009

The shows run for about three weeks for which there is a fee of $3800. Once the letter of agreement is signed, a deposit of $1900 is due immediately and the remainder is due one month before the exhibition. There is no commission but we do request a contribution (only 10%) if a sale is made during the show.

In addition to the space, the gallery will provide the guest artist with our mailing list of artists, museums, corporate and private collectors, dealers and patrons of the gallery. We will list the show with a brief description in The Gallery Guide as well the Chelsea Art Map. We provide an up-to-date list of advertising possibilities in the form of a of a publicity guide that gives an idea of the cost of ads as well as free listings. The exhibition will be featured on the home page of the gallery website during the show and mentioned in its annual newsletter. The gallery also provides a gallery assistant to run and manage the exhibition for its duration.

The guest artist is responsible for printing the announcement, postage and mailing, the press release, opening expenses (wine and food, if desired) hanging and taking down the show and any additional advertising.

Submissions are rolling and applicants are accepted upon review.
